We're not your average training company. Our apprenticeships aren't bound by bricks and mortar in the way colleges are. Instead we're able to deliver flexible apprenticeships that are unique to you and your needs.

Being able to help you this way means we can help you get the results you want in the time that you want them. That's why our customers have high success rates, and we're able to work so effectively. We only employ trainers who have the highest standards.

We care about you. You're at the heart of everything we do. From how we choose: our staff, the apprenticeships we deliver and the partners we work with. All our decisions are made with you in mind. Because, if you don't get the results you want, we haven't done our jobs properly. And we take what we do seriously.

The Business Enterprise & Development team at Bolton College is your ideal training partner. We work with many local employers to provide responsive and flexible training solutions, in order to drive-up productivity and boost a business's competitive advantage.

Our approach can start with a free and comprehensive training needs analysis that looks at your existing workforce - to identify any shortfalls and priority areas for development. We have access to a range of government funding that can help to maximise the impact of a limited training budget. We also offer a unique, free, recruitment service which provides value-for-money training solutions that are responsive to the changing needs of a business.
